ANNUAL REPORT, SIMONE DE BEAUVOIR INSTITUTE, 1992-93

During the June 1, 1992 to May 31, 1993 period, the Institute has undergone considerable changes and improvements in the following areas:

1) Administration: The Principal's position, partly funded by her SSHRC research-time stipend, has been converted into an LTA until May 31, 1994.

2) Faculty Personnel: Dr. Lucie Lequin, who is cross-appointed with the Department of Études françaises, received her tenure.

3) Staff: Joan Kohner, long-time Documentalist, retired this year, and Carol Mitchell is replacing her. The Documentation Centre obtained, this year again, the services of a students through the work-study programme. Ariel Fielding was hired for both terms.

4) Resident Fellow, Associate Fellows, Research Associates and Visiting Fellows (formerly Adjunct Fellows): The Institute has a world-wide reputation and attracts numerous scholars who wish to do research at the Institute. During the 1992-93 year we had 1 Resident Fellow, 15 Associate Fellows, 16 Research Associates (scholars based in or around Montreal who have a long term commitment to feminist research and the Institute), and 1 Visiting Fellow. For the list of Fellows, see Appendix A.

5) Student enrolment and participation: In 1992-93, including the summer of 1992, the Institute offered 23 courses and 4 tutorials to a total number of 493 students, equalling 1539 student credits. Our courses are 3 credit courses. On the average there were seven courses of 50 students and the rest had about 20-25 students. The enrolment in the various Women's Studies programmes was as follows: Major: 107, Minor: 13, Certificate: 5, for a total of 125 students. There were a large number of inquiries about the graduate programme in Women's Studies.

Several of our students received recognition for their outstanding academic work:

Zoe Newman received the Thérèse F. Casgrain medal. This medal is awarded to the most outstanding graduating student in Women's Studies.

Valérie Nunes and Roopmatie Lall shared the Provost Entrance Scholarship. This scholarship is for first year students.

Ariel Fielding received the Maïr Verthuy Scholarship. This scholarship is awarded to the most outstanding student entering her third year of Women's Studies.

In addition to attending courses and being involved in the intellectual life of the Institute, the students have been actively involved in the Women's Studies Students' Association. Additionally, students have participated in the self-appraisal/appraisal process. Students take a great interest and pride in the activities of the Institute and are concerned about the future development of Women's Studies. Their representatives participated in the various committees of the Institute.

6) Programmes and curriculum development: This year, the Institute concentrated on the self-appraisal process and members of the curriculum committee held numerous meetings to discuss changes in the curriculum. On March 18 and 19, members of the Institute met with Dr. Thelma McCormack, the external examiner.

7) Research Seminars and Public Events: Under the direction of S de B. Research Associate, Dr. Barbara Meadowcroft, the Institute had another successful year of research seminars. This year there was no overall theme. See Appendix B.

In addition to the research seminars, the Institute had four main lecture series: Women's History Month, Politics and Women's Lives, Black History Month, and Women Writers. The Institute also celebrated its 15th Anniversary. The Institute received financial contribution from the following organisations for its lecture series: the Visiting Lecturers Committee of Concordia University, the Faculty of Arts & Science, the Rector's office, the Departments of Études françaises, History, Biology, Communication Studies, Sociology and Anthropology, the School of Community and Public Affairs, as well as from the Canada Council and Coles Bookstore. See Appendix C.

8) Outside Representations: The faculty and fellows of the Institute attended many national and international workshops and conferences. These outside representations allowed scholars at other institutions to become acquainted with the work of the Institute. See Appendix D.

9) Publications by faculty and fellows: The faculty and fellows of the Institute continued to publish books and articles. See Appendix E.

10) Contributions by members of the Institute: The members of the Institute participated in various committees at the Institute, both within the University and with outside organizations. See Appendix F.

11) Institute Publications: The Institute's Newsletter/Bulletin will now be called "Bulletin" and will be published once a year. The Institute published Vol 12, No 2. Articles included were originally presented during the Fellows' seminars. No new Reprints were published this year. For a complete list of the Institute publications, see Appendix G.

12) Grants: During the 1992-93 academic year, the Principal and the full-time faculty at the Institute obtained $267 280.00 in grants (of this $110 000.00 is a team grant). The total of grants received by all members of the Institute is $558 020.00.
